Recipes

By BETTY BARCLAY

There are three tips to remember when cooking vegetables. First, use as little water as possible. Second, do not cook too long. Third, take advantage of the fact that a little sugar, usually added while the vegetable is cooking, helps to bring out the full, natural flavor. Here are two recipes. Try them and see how the dishes please:

Baked Carrot Loaf Scrape carrots and boil until tender. Wash, and to a pint of the pulp add two well-beaten eggs, a half teaspoon of salt, a quarter teaspoon of pepper, one tablespoon of sugar and a quarter cup of cream. Pour into a well-buttered mold. Stand this in a pan of hot water, and bake in a moderate oven until firm. Turn out on a hot platter and surround with peas, or serve with a white sauce.

Carrot and Pea Delight Boil two cups of cubed carrots until tender. Combine with one cup of cooked peas. Make a sauce of three tablespoons flour, three tablespoons butter or fat, one and a half cup milk, two teaspoons sugar, one-half teaspoon salt, and a dash of pepper. Add the cooked carrots and peas, reheat and serve very hot.

SHREDDED NUM NUM 1/4 cup cooked shredded chicken 1/4 cup cooked shredded ham 1/4 cup cooked spaghetti 1/4 cup green pepper shredded 1/4 red pimiento 3 tablespoons butter 2 cups cream 3 egg yolks 1 tablespoon salt 1/2 teaspoon paprika 2 mushrooms chopped fine

Simmer slowly in green pepper, mushrooms and butter in a covered dish. Add ham, chicken and paprika, and cook together 2 or 3 minutes. Add spaghetti, pimiento, cream and salt, boiling about 4 minutes. Mix yolks of eggs with 2 tablespoons of cream and stir into the mixture. Take off fire at once.

EASILY MADE RELISHES Do you realize that delicious relishes may be made quickly and easily with bottled pectin? Canned tomatoes, for instance, make even a better relish than the fresh. Beets and peppers are available at all times of the year. These relishes are a delightful supplement of meat courses.

Satisfying Sandwiches Many women do not think of sugar in connection with sandwiches, yet a little touch of sugar furnishes some quick energy food of real value and goes a long way toward bringing out the real flavor of some of the other sandwich ingredients. Try the following and you will appreciate these facts:

Boston Sandwiches Either left-over or canned baked beans can be used for a delicious filling for a hearty sandwich. Whole wheat and Boston brown bread are equally desirable. Press 1 cup baked beans through a coarse sieve and add 1 tablespoon tomato catchup, 1/4 teaspoon onion juice, 1/4 teaspoon mixed mustard and 1/2 teaspoon sugar. Spread on buttered slices of bread and serve with crisp pickles.

Date Picnic Sandwich The picnic lunch needs plenty of fruits. A few date sandwiches help to bolster this up, and furnish very delicious tidbits as well. Run half a cup of dates and half a cup of walnut meats through the food grinder, using the coarse plate. Mix with one Philadelphia cream cheese and 1/2 teaspoon sugar, spread on buttered slices of whole wheat bread.
